BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The Mg Inspr's note gives the reasons for his recommendation - The cost of printing the work (500 copies) is estimated at Rs 2200. The cost of 300 copies, at Rs 6 per copy, will be Rs 1800 and this amount is proposed to be met from the Several Vishnu temples, to which the copies are proposed to be distributed. Though this may be done eventually, the cost has, perhaps, to be met in the first instance from Govt. funds, as the Pandit may have to be financed to get the work printed - Enquiry on this point may, if necessary, be made of the Rny : Suptdt.

A draft order sanctioning the Rny : Suptdt's recommendation is, however, subd. for approval or other orders -

22/8/19 In case the amount is to be advanced from Govt., the Financial Sectt will have, perhaps, to be consulted -

22/8/19. The work has not been published yet. When the books are printed & received, the Rny Suptdt will send the distribution list to the Comptr. for adjt of accounts. Meanwhile the purchase of 300 copies (at Rs per Gs) of the Sanctd Draft order Sanctd is subd. for appl or orders.

22-8-19 seems suitable, and may be appd -

NOTE.

Subject:- Printing of the Padma Samhita.

I beg to submit herewith a petition presented by Sriman A. Anandalwar, Retired Pandit of the Archaeological Office, stating that some years ago he was asked by certain friends to edit the Padma Samhita which is the most important of all the Samhitas on the Pancharatra Agama and that he was able t get through 22 forms or 168 pages of the book when the work had to be stopped owing to withdrawal of assistance and abnormal rise in the cost of paper and other printing material. He now represents that a careful edition of the work which now exists in scattered manuscripts and in a few badly edited and scarce printed copies, is of the utmost value and is prepared to place his knowledge and resources at the disposal of Government in the matter.

2. The printing of the book is estimated to cost Rs.2500/- as per details furnished by the Pandit including the cost already incurred and the cost is likely to be somewhat less now as the cost of materials has gone down slightly. For an edition of 500 copies the cost may be roughly taken to be about Rs.2200/-.

3. The book is the most authoritative and comprehensive treatise on temple worship and should find a place in all the temple library. Besides it will have to be the most important text-book in Agama schools when such are started under the scheme separately suggested by me in connection with the constitution of the General Muzrai Fund. I would therefore beg to recommend that an undertaking may be given to the Pandit that the Government will buy 300 copies of the book at Rs.6/- a copy for distribution to the various Vishnu temples, the remaining copies being left to the Pandit to make up the rest of the cost and as remuneration for his trouble and labour. The cost may be apportioned for debit to the funds of the various institutions.

4. Samples pages of the book now in print are submitted herewith.
